Treatment and assistance procedures

A reference person is encharged to coordinate the treatments and give assistance to the patient according to a particular program.

This program is recorded in a Personalized Project and is composed of these phases:

1. anamnestic interview with the patient's parents and / or with the patient.
2. Definition of the level of cognitive and adaptive functioning in the main areas of life.
3. tests for the definition of initial skills.
4. identification of the deficit skills or areas in three sectors (cognitive, emotional, adaptive).
5. proposal for the intervention: type, way and time.
6. possible contacts and collaboration with other professional operators.
7. Quarterly or six-monthly reevaluation of the intervention on achieved results through the same instruments used in phase 2 and 3 and eventual redefinition of the intervention.

This Personalized Project is systematically verified and controlled. Every year an evaluation is set in order to evaluate the effectiveness of the interventions.
